

1. Never Let Go Again

Clouds sail 'cross an open sky
The sun shines like a firefly
I imagine that I were to try
Soaring like an eagle
With you in the blue of July

Birds wave on an open wing
Pretending they know everything
How they brag as they sing
Like a swing, jubilant in motion:
The flight, the delight it can bring

Picture you and I
Anything could happen
Clouds and feathers way up high
Never to land again

Wrap me in a summer breeze
Engulf me in your memories
Let us dream under trees
Swim the seas, run across the meadows
And leap from a sweeping trapeze

Picture you and I
Anything could happen
Just two feathers way up high
Never to land again

What a state of grace
Keep your heart wide open
Catch me in your sweet embrace
Never let go again

Clouds sail 'cross an open sky...

2. Kindness In Your Eyes

Sometimes morning's is a lonely view
Sometimes nothing goes right
Sometimes I'm in a tunnel
And I see no trace of light

Yearning, burdened with emptiness
Burning, pacing the floor
Turning, sleepless and restless
As I long for something more

When I can't go on Nothing will suffice
All my strength is gone
There's a kindness in your eyes
Such a kindness in your eyes

Sometimes I want to run away
But there's nowhere to hide
All I know that can calm me
Is that someone's on my side

When I long for a gentle word
But I've nothing to say
When I'm feeling run over
And I only know dismay

When the world's a grind
Cuts me down to size
I will always find
There's a kindness in your eyes
Such a kindness in your eyes

3. Sweet Little Melody

Quit tryin' to charm me
Keep it going and you'll disarm me
Hear you hum 'neath the golden moonlight
Bettin' you're feelin' lucky tonight

Mmmm...

Quit tryin' to win me
Every note is a hook within me
Tune so simple and still so catchy
Keep it up and I'll never be free

Mmmm...

Just a sweet ol' song
Sing it low 'n you can't go wrong
Don't you know you're conquering me
With your sweet little melody

Mmmm...

4. Melancholy Song

Melancholy song
You have stayed with me so long
Melancholy mood
Doesn't do to sit and brood

Melancholy mind
Let's go see what we can find
Melancholy friend
Let us not extend this
Let's go end this

We could be dancing
Could be enhancing
My chances of not feeling bad
We could be smiling
Could be compiling
Reasons for something
That will not make me sad

Melancholy room
With your thoughts of dread and doom
Melancholy way
You won't have the final say

Melancholy song
Think it's time you run along
Melancholy, bye
You are sorry, idle, suicidal

We could be dancing
Could be enhancing
My chances of not feeling bad
We could be smiling
Could be compiling
Reasons for something

Time we got out there
Time for a jump scare
High screams or ice creams for fun
Swimming and bowling
No more controlling
Bring the confetti
'Cause melancholy's done

5. Loneliness

Loneliness

Loneliness

Slowly I will burn these bridges

I'll leave this house of blinds

Throw open every window

Bear witness as the clock unwinds

Throwing caution to the wind

Wish I were thicker-skinned

Loneliness

Loneliness

Healing is a work in progress

I breathe and take it in

I close my final suitcase

And leave behind me what has been

Every memory of before

Finally closing the door

6. Wedding Anniversary

Hands
And a ring
How the church bells would sing
Dreams of tomorrow taking wing

On our wedding day
What did we say?
Yes to all that it would bring

And I still remember everything
Yes, I still remember everything

Hands
Down the aisle
And a promise worth while
To always go that extra mile

Knew exactly who
I said yes to
I could live within your smile

And I still remember everything
Yes, I still remember everything

Every little thing I still recall
Every little detail of it all

And I still remember everything
Yes, I still remember everything

7. Open Road

Bright is the sunlight in my eye
Can't see a thing up ahead, but I try
I will not turn around
Something draws nearer
All becomes clearer

Bright is the view that I pursue
Something to sparkle and shine, to renew
I don't know where I'm bound Still, I am going
Forwardly flowing

Out on the open road
You will find me
With an open mind

There is no roadside sign
To remind me
What I leave behind

Mile after mile
Gone for a while
Chase a different scene
Anywhere

Town after town
No slowing down
We are nearly there

Out on the open road
You will find me
With an open mind

Free with no heavy load
To remind me
What I leave behind

Mile after mile
Gone for a while
Anywhere

Town after town
No slowing down
We are nearly there

Bright is the sunlight in my eye...

8. Rainmaker

Spilling in droplets of silver
Droplets become a shower

And I am dry land
I barely understand
How happy I would be
If you would shower me

Shining in ripples of water
Showers become a river

I let them sink in Each raindrop on my skin
To soak my shriveled soul
These showers make me whole

Rainy weather brings the end of summer
Every raindrop heading for a fall Rain will make your lover move in closer
Rain will make a lover of us all

Spilling in droplets of silver

These droplets will burst
And I am made of thirst
So help me liquefy
A sea of you and I

Rainy weather brings the end of winter
Every raindrop heading for a spring
Rain will help you if you're starting over
Wash you clean and salvage everything

9. I Will Never Let You Go

I will never let you go
Though I know you're bound to return
Wherever you traveled I'd miss you, you know
And I'd forever yearn

I will never let you go
But I'll give you all that you need
So if an adventure would help you to grow
Then I would have you freed

I'd let you go, let you travel
Though I'd unravel
I'd never show you how I'd burn

I'd let you go, let you leave me
Though it would grieve me
Only to hope for your return

If you go, bring me along
To the foreign lands you will roam
Then I'd be your compass, your beacon, your light
And guide you safely home

I'd let you go, let you travel
Though I'd unravel

I'd let you go, let you leave me
Though it would grieve me
Only to hope for your return

If you go, then let me come
In your pocket or in a shoe
Though life as a loner is all right for some I'd rather be with you

10. Round And Round And Round

Early in the morning, jumpin' outta bed
Suit up, ready to go
Something good is waiting right up ahead
Something big is 'bout to blow

Twenty minutes later, walkin' down the street
Come on, money to earn
Feel the sidewalk slidin' under my feet
As the music makes me turn

Round and round and round
Feet don't touch the ground

Later in the evenin', walkin' home from work
Oh my, where to begin
Way too tired and the boss is a jerk
Then the music makes me spin

Round and round and round
Dancin' to the sound

11. Slowly Falling

A chill in the air
The signs are everywhere
A trace, something missing
That I can't replace

A whiff of decay
The warmth has gone away
We fray like a shoestring
And now I can't stay

I don't know where I'm going
Just that I'm leaving
The world's open wide
Like a wound, a sigh
A goodbye

I don't know what will happen
But you won't listen
My words twisted round
As they hit the ground
Without sound

Slowly falling one by one by one
Slowly falling one by one by one

Let's turn out the sun
The summer's come undone
This fall we're descending
In spite of it all

I don't know where we're going
Where this is leading My arms open wide

I don't know what will happen
Where is the passion
And if there's a flame
Will we lose the game
All the same

Slowly falling one by one by one
